Trinity Sunday

The Spirit brings nothing less than everything God has done in Jesus (v.13). Listening to the Spirit, to understand the things Jesus has to say, is what the church calls Theology, with its tools including prayer, bible study, reading, thinking, discussion: meditation, lecto divina, eucharist; plus song, dance, painting, stitching, fasting and serving. What do we hear? That the Triune God is an active God, coming, going, returning, sending, receiving, hearing and speaking. The Trinity has been described as harmonious song and dance! But this God is always open: embracing humankind within the whole creation, comforting, defending, encouraging, uniting. God's "everything" is "glory" (ch.17). Christ glorifies God, by following God's way to the end, even death. God glorifies Christ by raising him into the glory that he shared within the Triune God before the creation (17:4-5; 1:1-5). The Spirit glorifies Jesus by declaring and sharing Christ's glory with us (16:14; 17:22). The glory of God with which we glow leads us to perfect joy (16:20-22) wrapped in divine love (17:23-26).

Taken from with Love to the World

We honour life when we work,
The type of work is not important:
The fact of work is.
All work feeds the soul
if it is honest
and done to the best of our abilities
and if it brings joy to others.

Matthew Fox

John 16:12-15

I still have many things to say to you, but you cannot bear them now. However, when He, the Spirit of truth, has come, He will guide you into all truth; for He will not speak on His own authority, but whatever He hears He will speak; and He will tell you things to come. He will glorify Me, for He will take of what is Mine and declare it to you. All things that the Father has are mine.

Blessings
